DEFENDANT: SAID EL BOUAZZAOU
CASE NUMBER: 1:19CR00036-001 JNPSUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of:

Five (5) Years.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☒ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: SAID EL BOUAZZAOU
CASE NUMBER: 1:19CR00036-001 JNPSTANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.
14. You must submit your person, residence, office or vehicle to search, conducted by the probation office at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release; failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; you must warn any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You must cooperate with the United States Probation and Pretrial Services Computer and Internet Monitoring program; Appendix A, Computer and Internet use (Not Applicable to Third Party Employment). Cooperation shall include, but not be limited to, identifying computer systems (as identified in 18 USC 1030 (e)(1)), internet capable devices, networks (routers/modems), and/or similar electronic devices (external hard drives, flash drives, etc.) to which you have access. All devices are subject to random inspection/search, configuration, and the installation of monitoring software and/or hardware at your expense.
2. You must inform all parties who access approved computer(s) or similar electronic device(s) that the device(s) is subject to search and monitoring. You may be limited to possessing only one personal computer and/or internet capable device to facilitate the ability to effectively monitor your internet-related activities.
3. You must report any and all electronic communications service accounts (as defined in 18 USC 2510 (15)(17)) used for user communications, dissemination, and/or storage of digital media files (i.e. audio, video, images, documents, device backups) to the U.S. Probation Office. This includes, but is not limited to, email accounts, social media accounts, and cloud storage accounts. You shall provide each account identifier and password and shall report the creation of new accounts. Changes in identifiers and/or passwords, transfer, suspension and/or deletion of any account shall be reported within five days of such action. You must permit the U.S. Probation Office to access and search any account(s).
4. The Court orders that the presentence report may be released to the state sex-offender registration agency if required for purposes of sex-offender registration.
5. You must participate in and successfully complete sex-offender treatment, to include a risk assessment and physiological testing, at a program approved by the U.S. Probation Office. You must abide by the rules, requirements, conditions, policies, and procedures of the program. You must submit to periodic polygraph testing as directed by the U.S. Probation Office or treatment provider as a means to ensure your compliance with the requirements of your supervision or treatment program. You must contribute to the cost of services rendered in an amount to be determined by the U.S. Probation Office, based on your ability to pay.
6. You are restricted from contact with individuals who are under 18 years of age without adult supervision, as approved by the U.S. Probation Office.
7. You must abide by the following occupational restrictions: Any employment shall be approved by the U.S. Probation Office. In addition, if third-party risks are identified, the U.S. Probation Office is authorized to inform your employer of your supervision status.
8. You must not view, access, or possess sexually explicit material in any format.
